

UNIVERSITIES CHAPTER, YORKSHIRE No. 4047

Extraordinary Convocation

6.00pm Thursday 30th November 2017

Hull Masonic Hall, 69 Beverley Road, Hull, HU3 1XL

By Dispensation from the Most Excellent Grand Superintendents of the Provincial Grand Chapters of Yorkshire, West Riding and Yorkshire, North & East Ridings

The main business will be to receive a lecture entitled:

"KNOWLEDGE ESSENTIAL TO A SECURE UNDERSTANDING OF THE ROYAL ARCH"

by

Excellent Companion E. John T. Acaster

PProvGSwdB (East Lancashire).

E.Comp John Acaster is a noted masonic historian and researcher. He is a recent Past Master of Quatuor Coronati Lodge No.2076 and a past president of the Manchester Association for Masonic Research. He was exalted in Clapton Chapter No.1365 in London in 1972 and was a founding member of Robert Burns Chapter No.999 in Salford in 1992. He describes himself as being of Yorkshire blood but Lancastrian birth. He has lectured for the former Cornerstone Society and has delivered papers at the International Conference on the History of Freemasonry, among others.

To be followed by a Festive Board at the same venue priced at £15 per person:

Soup of the Day – Roast Pork with all the Trimmings – Jam Sponge with Custard – Cheese & Biscuits

Bookings by latest Friday 24th November to the Scribe E:

E.Comp Edward Sissling, c/o A C Sissling Ltd, 20 Fitzwilliam Street, Broomfields, Bradford, BD4 7BL edward@sissling-group.co.uk Mob: 07532 323622 Office: 01274 200320

Cheques payable to 'Universities Chapter, Yorkshire No.4047 please.